

Deputy Head Connaught School for Girls Required for September 2022

Seize the Day
EXCELLENCE. RESILIENCE.
INCLUSION

L19-L23: £69,087 to £75,842 per annum

The Governing body seek to appoint a new Deputy Head for Connaught School for Girls.

Connaught School for Girls is a successful single-sex academy school in Leytonstone, in the London Borough of Waltham Forest. We currently have 636 pupils on roll between the ages of 11 and 16. It has an excellent reputation in the local area.

The school's vision:

- Strive for excellence
- Strive to be resilient
- Strive to be inclusive

Who are we looking for?

You will be a passionate, dynamic and inspirational leader who will be confident working in partnership with a dedicated stakeholder community, to inspire happy, motivated, and receptive students.

You will be excited by the opportunity to build on our current success, bring a fresh perspective to our whole school improvement plan and work with our committed and diverse team, to enhance our student and staff experiences.

Through being a visible, energetic, and principled leader, you will have experience in the management of change and able to develop high performing teams.

You will have high aspirations for our students, staff, and parents/carers, whilst maintaining the caring and inclusive ethos and character of our school.

You will be an experienced leader able to demonstrate significant and sustained impact in your current role.

What we can offer you

- Enthusiastic and hardworking students who want to learn and take part in all aspects of school life. Ofsted stated in 2019 'they are motivated to succeed and attentive to their work'
- A school which has an excellent record of achievement for all students. Our progress 8 score in 2019 was 0.67
- Staff who are committed to improving the standard of education for all pupils
- A supportive Governing Body.
- Good OFSTED rating in October 2019
