

KS3 OVERVIEW

What kind of learning will be set?	How should I complete/submit my home learning?	How will I receive feedback on my home learning?
Pre-learning Students are set work to understand skills and information, which is then embedded in the lesson. Some learning will be work that can be done outside of the lesson time, so that students have more opportunities and access to a variety of media. Other forms of learning will be specifically set to build skills.	Pre-learning is intended to help students to better understand the areas they will be studying in the lessons. This will therefore be submitted within the lesson when students create practical work. Skills learning will usually be submitted in their sketchbooks the following lesson.	As verbal feedback is the most effective form of feedback, this will be given regularly for both school and home work. Student progress will be documented within their 3 reports during the year.

What kind of learning will be set?	How should I complete/submit my home learning?	How will I receive feedback on my home learning?
As students work individually and independently within their assignment tasks (documented in their Art or Photography handbook) the work set is usually individualized and through discussion with their Art tutor. Some learning will be done outside of the lesson time, so that students have more opportunities and access to a variety of media. Specific work will also be set to build skills and confidence in types of media that the students can use at home.	All GCSE coursework and homework is completed in their sketchbooks.	As verbal feedback is the most effective form of feedback, this will be given regularly to students within their lessons. Detailed and relevant feedback is given at certain points within their assignment period.
