

KS3 OVERVIEW

Tasks in English vary from week to week based on the unit being studied. Students may get a writing task or written activity to complete, but equally may be given reading to do, research or preparation for a speaking task.

What kind of learning will be set?	How should I complete/submit my home learning?	How will I receive feedback on my home learning?
independent reading of novel	Accelerated Reader quizzes	credits given for passed quizzes checked in class in next lesson independent reading of non-fiction texts	texts on Google Classroom or annotated in exercise books	in class feedback and group discussion with peers
research of a topic	in class feedback and discussion	class or group discussion
learning spelling or vocabulary or use of SPaG	spelling test or in class exercise	mark own work reading tasks - worksheet with activity or questions	feedback on texts read, peer assessment or self-assessment of responses	mark own work
writing tasks - planning or redrafting	final draft completed in class	checked by teacher
preparation for speaking task	speaking presentation	assessed by teacher

KS4 OVERVIEW

What kind of learning will be set?	How should I complete/submit my home learning?	How will I receive feedback on my home learning?
Language <ul style="list-style-type: none">● independent reading of a range of 19th century texts● independent reading of non-fiction texts● learning and revision of key terminology● proof-reading and redrafting of written texts● preparation and practice for spoken language task	annotation of read texts in class checks and peer and self-assessment in class assessment of spoken language task	feedback in group and class discussions
Literature <ul style="list-style-type: none">● independent reading of text● research of contextual information● learning quotations● completing and developing notes started in lessons● exam question review● wider reading of articles (extension)	all written work documented in exercise books feedback in group and class discussions	feedback in group and class discussions